

Attention Parents/Guardians and Students:

OPENING DOORS

Learning and Earning in the 21st Century

Making informed decisions for the future:

OCSB Specialized Pathways, Opportunities and Programs

Student surveys tell us they listen to you, as parents, for information and guidance with respect to post-secondary planning.

What are the options? What are the careers of tomorrow?

What does the labour market data tell us, in terms of future employment and economic sectors that will be seeking workers?

How can parents help? Come learn more about the opportunities for your child!
